3 March 2015

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Thursday 12 March 2015, Ms Urbano’s Year 10 French students will be attending a field study to Le Petit Escargot Restaurant at 50 Murray Street, Pyrmont.

This field study will allow students to identify ways in which French-speaking communities have contributed to the Australian way of life, eg food, clothes, manners and attitudes. They will also be able to practise speaking in the French language.

The students will depart school at 10:30 am and walk to Burwood Station to catch a train to the city. The students will be dismissed on return to Burwood Station at approx. 3:00 pm.

Full school uniform must be worn. Please bring money or Opal card on the day for train fare.

The cost for the restaurant is $22.00, to be paid the front office by 2:00 pm, Tuesday 10 March 2015. Please bring correct money.

Please sign and return the permission slip below to Ms Urbano in the Languages Faculty by Wednesday 11 March.

Yours sincerely

A. Urbano
