1 May 2015

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Wednesday 3 June 2015 all Year 8 students of French will experience a French Field Study Day.

The day will commence at school with the viewing of the French film ‘Belle et Sebastien’ a G-rated film which explores the bond between a young boy and a dog. It is a highly acclaimed movie from the 2014 Film Festival.

This will be followed by an authentic French meal at the restaurant ‘Le Petit Escargot’, 50 Murray Street, Darling Harbour. Students will eat French food in the ambience of a French restaurant where they will hear French spoken and be encouraged to speak French.

The excursion will cost $25.00 per student for lunch, which consists of an entrée, a main meal and a dessert. Attached to this letter is the menu from which students are to choose one entrée, one main and one dessert, and write their choices on the permission slip below.

All students should be at school at 8:45 am for roll call and the film. At 11:30 am they will then walk to Burwood Station and catch the train to Town Hall Station accompanied by teachers. Students will return to Burwood Station by 3:00 pm where they will be dismissed, or they can walk back to school with their teachers.

Students need to wear full school uniform, be on their best behaviour and must bring sunscreen, an umbrella and/or raincoat, plus money or Opal card for return train fare.

$25.00 needs to be paid to the front office by no later than 2:00 pm, Friday 29 May 2015. Please bring CORRECT MONEY when paying. Please be aware that if a student is absent on the day, a refund cannot be given for cancellations ON THE DAY.

The permission slip below needs to be returned to Ms Urbano in the Languages Faculty by Friday 29 May. Your daughter cannot attend if the permission slip is not returned.

Yours sincerely

Ms A. Urbano (organiser)
Languages Faculty

Mr E. Kent
Head Teacher Languages
