17 November 2015

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Tuesday 24 November 2015 there will be a field study for Year 9, 10 & 11/12 students to visit the annual Fashion Parade at the Whitehouse Institute of Design, Short Street, Surry Hills.

The purpose of this field study is to view the exhibition and parade of final year students’ works so that our Textile students can be inspired and motivated, particularly students with an aptitude in this area. This field study also raises awareness of a tertiary institution that offers courses in Fashion, Styling and Interior Design.

Students are to meet Ms Patonay at the TAS steps at the beginning of recess (10:10 am). The group will depart from school at 10:30 am and walk to Burwood Station, then travel by train to Central and walk to the venue.

At the end of the field study, approx. 2:30 pm, the students will have the following choices:

- be dismissed at the venue to make their own way home
- be dismissed at Burwood Station (approx. 3:15 pm)
- return to school to be dismissed

Parents must indicate choice of return travel arrangement on permission slip below.

On the day, students must bring money/Opal card for train fares, lunch/drink or money to buy lunch/drink. Full school uniform must be worn.

The cost for this field study is $10.00, to be paid at TAS Staffroom by Monday 23 November 2015.

Please bring correct money.

Please return the permission slip below to Ms Patonay by Monday 23 November.

Yours faithfully

R. Patonay
Head Teacher TAS
